“Better Information Means Better Care” opt-out form (Under 16)
(care.data scheme)

Thank you for your enquiry regarding “Better Information Means Better Care”, the new NHS England programme sharing certain aspects of your GP record with the national Health and Social Care Information Centre (HSCIC). This consent captures your decision to opt-out of certain aspects of the programme.

These decisions relate to the care.data scheme only.

I have read the leaflet called “Better Information Means Better Care” and understand the NHS England plan to share certain personal information with HSCIC and wish to make the following declarations. I understand I have the option to change my mind at any time and I will inform you if I subsequently decide to opt back into this system.

Patient name _____ Date of Birth _____

Signature (Parent/Guardian) _____ Date _____

Relationship to patient _____
